

Lindsay Hobson, Teacher

- Bachelors of Arts Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies, with concentration in History and certificate in teaching English as a second language, from Northwest University. Graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2002.
- Taught English as a second language at Northwest University from 2003-2007.
- Caregiver of children for 23 years as a nanny, babysitter and childcare employee.
- Substitute Teacher for Kirkland Preschool for several years.

"I am thrilled to join Kirkland Preschool as a full-time teacher. I want to help your children develop a genuine love and joy of learning. It is a joy to see their faces light up as they figure out how to write their name, or paint an amazing picture!

My interest include crewel-style embroidery, reading, drawing, and baking. I also love to experiment with new student art ideas.

I adore children and hope to have some of my own, but until that happens, I love spending time with my nieces who are Kirkland Preschool alumni.

In addition, I assist my father in caring for my mother.

One of my favorite children's books is "Oh, The Thinks You can Think" by Dr. Seuss. I love this book because it is about imagination. One of my favorite activities at school is free play. I enjoy seeing and joining the kids in what they are doing, from coloring, to dress-up. You are never too old to pretend and have fun."